Foxton will eventually be the first stop off SH1 from Wellington. Now is the perfect time to invest in this pristine accommodation venue.

Celtic Motel has 7 units six of them are family units and one is a studio. The Owners free-hold residence is contemporary and features 3 large bedrooms, large open-plan living and spacious kitchen, double garaging and a private, tranquil garden.

Relocate to the tourism capital of the Horowhenua region Te Awahou Nieuwe Stroom attracts over 140,000 visitors each year. It is also home to De Molen Windmill, Off the Loop Adventure and Wakeboarding Park and an internationally award-winning skate park. The towns population swells extensively over summer with nearby Foxton Beach a popular destination.

After 16 ½ years, the owners are retiring to tour the country and are wanting to pass on this property to an owner who will enjoy and grow the business. Make sure you are in on the ground floor, with this fantastic tourism opportunity.
