Insulation Installation Company Business for Sale
Wellington Greater Area

This business, an insulation Installation company, is in an exciting, growing sector of New Zealand's economy – residential housing and construction.

Recent changes to the law regarding healthy homes, advances in insulation product technologies, and a focus on new, well insulated homes, have created a growing need for the service this company provides. Currently, the demand for their service is huge, and it will continue to grow.

If you have the skills to manage a small installation team, a basic knowledge of the construction industry and either have, or are willing to learn, more about insulation materials and their correct installation, you are well on your way to take advantage of this exciting opportunity to grow your own business and your wealth.

Ideally, this business will suit either, a hands-on skilled person, as an add-on to an existing business operating in the same space, or for an investor that can create a skilled management team around the services and products of the business.
