Game Fishing Charters - Pacific Islands Business

Business for Sale Description

Game Fishing Charters Business for Sale Pacific Islands

It's like being on holiday every day of the week. This fully accredited Pacific Islands based Fishing Charter business only requires minimal input from the owner; the current owner working on the business about 5 hours a week.

With a General Manager and excellent reliable staff in place, this business makes for a great investment. The new owner could elect to sit back and leave the business as is, or work on it and continue to grow the excellent and respected reputation it has earned over the last 22 years.

Currently focusing on both game fishing and spear fishing, this business is renowned for their excellent strike rates and sending their customers home with very memorable photos of who won on the day. They constantly have very good forward bookings with deposits paid.

The fleet of boats is fully certified and very well-maintained, plus excellent onboard equipment meets the current needs of the business; significant opportunity remains to grow this business without immediate further capital requirements.

As 99% of the customers are tourists, it's about balancing the utilisation of the fleet to the best advantage while still meeting the fishing dreams of the most discerning customers. Yes - this location still currently has a very good tourism industry.

The decision to sell this business has been agonising for the Vendor but he has opted to focus on new growth opportunities his other business has been presented with. He is willing to pass his years of experience on to the new owner and has promised an excellent handover.

Price: NZ$750,000 excluding additional taxes (if any).
