Manufacturing and Importing for NZ Industry

Business for Sale Description

Manufacturing and Importing Business for Sale
Auckland

This long term consistent performer designs, manufactures, and markets a high-demand range of products and components used across a wide industrial and commercial sector in New Zealand and Australia. The business also imports and distributes an extensive range of related products with long standing supply relationships.

As well as manufacturing a range of standard products, the business designs and manufactures to customer specifications from modern workshops equipped with CNC technology meeting latest international standards.

The business has a good risk-spread across a range of very long-standing customers.

The business is based in Auckland with branches in the South Island and Australia working from vendor-owned premises.

The vendor is retiring and will be available to provide sound transitional assistance.

The investment required includes stock at $500,000. The transfer of the business will require a commitment by the buyer to purchase additional inventory with a cost value of approximately $3.9 million over an agreed time span.
