Guthrie Bowron Feilding

Franchise for Sale Description

Guthrie Bowron Franchise for Sale Feilding

Guthrie Bowron is New Zealand's leading home decorating specialist. With 50 stores nationwide franchisees enjoy solid franchise support and a comprehensive national marketing program. The home improvement and home decorating category is going gang-busters, Guthrie Bowron is New Zealand's favourite home furnishing store, placing you in a strong position to take advantage and reap the rewards by acquiring this business.

Guthrie Bowron Feilding has been owned by the current franchisee since 2014. During this time the business has continued to grow, with significant increases over the past 2-3 years.

There has been significant investment in plant, equipment and the ambiance of the store itself. The results of the investment and efforts of the current franchisee are extremely evident with an extremely impressive store and business.

Guthrie Bowron as a retail group has experienced a favourable trading environment over the past year.

The current franchisee is approaching retirement and has decided the timing is right to sell the business and allow an incoming franchisee to build on his work. There is certainly continued opportunity to grow the business.
