Rural toad transport business with modern fleet and strong customer base

Business for Sale Description

Rural Transport Business for Sale Waikato

Based in the Waikato, this business has built a large loyal customer base with its fleet of modern trucks.

Modern technology used for pricing and management of jobs, leaving a template for new owners to ensure they are on track to maintaining and building on current levels of turnover.

Fleet of highly regarded brands with a striking livery in both livestock and tipper trucks.

Vendor is willing to negotiate handover period with purchaser to ensure they know the business and clients well before stepping out of the business.

Covid proof business working as essential services to rural sectors.

Experiencing growth of profits year on year, with plenty of room to grow the business for a motivated buyer.

Exciting business that will offer you plenty of diversity day to day so no day will feel like the last.

This business is perfect for someone looking to get into transport that has the ability to finance a business of this size, or someone looking to expand and take on another branch or territory. With the lack of quality trucks available at the moment, buying this business with the equipment and taking on its work is a fantastic opportunity that shouldn't be overlooked.
