Vendor Looking For Quick Sale – Bring Your Best Offer

Business for Sale Description

Restaurant for Sale East Auckland

On the market for the first time, this award-winning fine dining restaurant has been the flag bearer for traditional ethnic cuisine in one of the most prized suburbs of central East Auckland. Known for its aromatic rice, hand-prepared barbeque meats, and mouth-watering dishes, it has been voted amongst top 50 restaurants in Auckland for many years.

With a seating capacity exceeding fifty within a cozy and comfortable setting, the vendor prides himself on bringing farm-to-table concept using only the freshest and finest ingredients. The chef is highly trained in the preparation of food and has been with the business for many years.

Running with a lunch and dinner menu with selective wines on offer and truly personalised service, the business operates in a splendid location that cannot be missed. It also hosts private functions on the venue and offers catering and Uber Eats options for clients in Auckland. There is potential to open this restaurant for traditional breakfast generating higher turnover and more reach.

It is currently run as a semi-managed set-up with both owners taking an income from the business with a manager running the operations expertly. Priced competitively with a strong lease in place, cooperative landlord, and efficient staff in place.

The owners are looking for an URGENT SALE as they plan to retire and move overseas. They have asked for all genuine offers to be presented. The business can be run as a semi-managed or fully managed operation, ideally suited to a hospitality experienced chef or restaurateur. As an established brand, it also offers opportunity for future franchise for a smart investor. The owners are looking for finance-approved or cash buyers with a capacity to invest $400K and above to operate the restaurant at the highest standards.
