Business for Sale Description

Manufacturing / Engineering Business for Sale
Auckland

A consistently profitable, leading performer in its sector with potential for further growth. Retirement means there's a great opportunity for a new owner to enjoy the rewards that come from a well-managed business with long-standing, regular customers whose growing businesses build demand. You may be a sales executive or perhaps experienced in light engineering with customer management capability. With support from a very well reputed and experienced franchisor, you'll continue to reap the benefits of consistently growing demand and a superior product and service offer. The business is well located with a good lease and competent, experienced staff.

The price includes stock in excess of $156,000.

A sound profitability record with potential for further growth. Opportunities like this are rare. Make contact now and take the next step towards business ownership.
