Good Habit Licenced Cafe GEM in the City

Business for Sale Description

Good Habit Cafe for Sale Christchurch

Set in a magical garden in what was once a convent, Good Habit is a favorite for cafe goers in Christchurch. This setting could never be replicated - the historic timber building makes for a warm and inviting place to lunch/brunch and the cafe garden is one of a kind in our city centre. Open 7 days a week, the experienced hospitality owners have built a reputation for consistently delicious food from the menu and cabinet.

This is not just a picturesque cafe, sales are in excess of $700,000, over 26kg of coffee per week, and being licensed, there is further scope to utilize the amazing garden setting, which also has access to a deconsecrated chapel which would be amazing for private parties and corporate events.

The current owners only work in it part-time, leaving a new owner to capitalize and build on what is already a successful business. Also, opening selected evenings could provide another lucrative income stream.

If you are a lover of old buildings, garden settings, want to provide quality lunch/brunch offerings, and are looking for a top-performing cafe that still has room for growth, don't delay.
