A Rare Opportunity in the Real Estate Industry

Business for Sale Description

Real Estate Business for Sale Auckland

The chances of a fully functioning & successful franchised Real Estate office becoming available for sale is as rare as hen's teeth. This is one opportunity with a well-established branch focusing on predominantly residential sales that needs to be considered very quickly. The current owners have been very successful & have made a reluctant decision to focus on other (currently very important) areas of their family lives.

If you hold a Licensed Real Estate Agent Certificate, have a sales background, are a good communicator & like people, this business will be very easy for you & it could be your opportunity to make a big difference in your working lifestyle. If you don't hold an Agents Certificate, but have a sales background, that's also OK, but a Certified Agent would need to be employed.

This busy Auckland-based office is very reluctantly being made available for sale to you due to extraordinary family circumstances. The Vendors are promising a very good handover & could even remain in the business for an agreed period as salespeople. This clearly demonstrates there are no gremlins in this business. There are also some operational surprises which will only be revealed in a face-to-face meeting under confidentiality.

The branch has everything you need to be successful & an exceptionally good handover, with training if necessary will be available.

Price: By negotiation - plus GST if any. There are several surprises & several options to consider.

Act now if you like what you are reading & are keen to further build an excellent Real Estate sales businesses. This is the one opportunity to follow up immediately. To obtain further information, visit www.barkerbusiness.co.nz/3236 & submit the online Confidentiality Agreement. Once Mike receives your expression of interest, he will be in touch to arrange an initial meeting to discuss the business.
