Superb Profitable Event Hire Business for Sale

Business for Sale Description

Superb Event Hire Business for Sale Canterbury

Located in the middle of the South Island, this business is currently servicing clients mainly in the Canterbury Region. The business has also serviced clients from Southland up to the Tasman District.

Although the business is currently located in the South Island, it can be relocated to anywhere within New Zealand.

Included as part of the business sale, are exceptional quality and extensive assets that have an open market value estimated to be over $550,000.

Key points to this opportunity are:

- Well known and long-established business.
- Exceptional reputation.
- There is no other way to describe existing systems and processes, other than 'perfect'!
- Exceptionally well organised warehouse, packed as you would load the vehicles for each event.
- Great suppliers who are able to provide quality and industry related plant and equipment.
- A wide range of tangible asset options and decor for each client to choose from.
- Equipment includes mobile luxury bathrooms; thus, each event can be self-contained - even on a paddock - creating unforgettable moments.
- Well trained and responsible staff and sub-contractors who love their work.
- Impressive number of forward bookings with deposits received.
- Ability for 3-4 months holiday a year.

This business can reward you with a sense of accomplishment and beauty with every event and a great lifestyle with the option to take long-term holidays.

There is also the option to invest further capital in a separate division of the business i.e. the long-term hire division as an add on with assets that have an open market value estimated to be over $800,000.
