Streetwise Coffee carts are not your average coffee cart - these truly are a superior business opportunity for aspiring coffee entrepreneurs. Minimal overheads and fantastic earnings potential - what more are you wanting..?

Why Streetwise?

Every day thousands of coffee lovers buy a Streetwise coffee. Streetwise coffee outlets have become symbols of coffee perfection throughout New Zealand.

Streetwise Coffee is not your typical café business. Instead of expensive premises, franchisees operate from stylish, carefully-designed carts serving first-class coffee and simple snacks.

With 25 locations around the country, Streetwise Coffee has proved to be hugely attractive as a business proposition. At around $180,000, the carefully-designed carts offer a lower-investment entry point into the café business.

Streetwise Coffee operates from fixed locations, ensuring regular business and, because the carts are relocatable, franchisees are less exposed to the whims of landlords and traffic flows.

This philosophy works well as it helps maintain profitability and, unlike mobile coffee vans, means no additional overheads such as fuel, rego or WOF.

Streetwise Coffee isn't just a business; it's an opportunity for people to build a great asset for the future.

With an estimated establishment cost of around $180,000 this is an opportunity for someone looking to operate their own business with the support of a well established and successful brand behind them.
