High Performing Mount Maunganui Business

Available for the first time in over 15 years the opportunity has arisen to purchase Guthrie Bowron Mount Maunganui. Adjacent to the busy HomeZone and with easy access from Owens Place and the State Highway 2 Bayfair Interchange this business continues to be the leader in the Bay of Plenty Region. Alongside other high profile Brands the excellent street frontage and ample parking make this store exceptionally accessible and desirable.

With a strong customer base of both the home decorator as well as trade professionals Guthrie Bowron Mount Maunganui continues to be a very profitable business in an area experiencing substantial growth in the residential property market. The current franchisee, now ready to retire, has built up this business and its profile to be an exceptional business within the Group and the leader in the Bay of Plenty Region - This store is an absolute standout.

From Northland to Southland, across major cities and popular regional towns, Guthrie Bowron has been proudly inspiring New Zealanders for 125 Years.

Each Guthrie Bowron is proudly local and with the ability to provide localised home decorating specialists with an expansive quality range across paint, wallpaper, flooring, curtains & blinds. Guthrie Bowron customers can be sure they are trusting their home decorating dreams with a local just like you.

Having the ability to connect with and assist locals with a quick room makeover or working with fellow tradespeople to undertake a major renovation or a new build is what has attracted and continues to motivate existing franchisees within the Group.
