Rainaway. Spouting On The Spot! Franchise Territories Available Across NZ

Established over 20 years ago, Rainaway Spouting on the Spot is New Zealand's leading continuous spouting franchise.

They were one of the first to use a mobile continuous spouting machine in New Zealand and Rainaway continues to be the experts in the industry.

Rainaway's customers include home owners, property investors and group builders and Rainaway has built a reputation on delivering excellent customer service that is backed by their 10 year leak free warranty.

Rainaway has developed a proven franchise system that provides their franchisees with the foundations for them to build a profitable continuous spouting business within an exclusive territory.

Most Rainaway franchisees had little or no spouting experience when they joined the network and were soon able to master the sales and installation side of the business and now run businesses that employ sales and administration staff and several teams of installers.

Rainaway's Values

Rainaway's values include:

- Provide a safe, positive and flexible environment for our franchisees that promotes personal growth.
- Provide a value added service to builders and homeowners alike using quality products and professional installation practices.
- Exercise honesty, integrity and courtesy in all relations with customers, suppliers and competitors.
- Use our experience throughout your relationship with us to create satisfied customers and friends along the way.
