Concrete Repair and Rejuvenation Business. Homebased To Earn $90k/Year

This very practical hands on concrete rejuvenation business suits an energetic practical owner.

Consider these details:

- * Homebased very low overhead business for a practical person
- * One owner operator can earn over $90,000/year for a 5 day week
- * Full training in all aspects of the work will be provided by the vendor
- * Would ideally suit someone with background experience in the concrete or construction industry.

A superb opportunity for an energetic person to be fully trained in a specialised niche market with little competition and plenty of demand from customers.
