Logistics - But Definitely Not as You Know It

This is not your normal Logistics company. This profitable business operates well under the radar, but have very good control of the category they work in. Establishing the business to the standard of excellence that has been achieved has been ongoing dedication to the job, and the owners have decided to cash up their investment and start to enjoy the lifestyle benefits they have missed over the last 16 years.

However, the Vendor would be prepared to remain in a senior role in the business for an agreed period of time to ensure the growth curve continues, as there is still a lot of opportunity in this particular category to own both nationally and internationally, particularly with some smart further capital investment. An investment that will definitely reap significant rewards.

The business is associated and aligned with some big names which endears their loyal client base, creating almost seamless transactions globally.

Who should buy this business? If you are a truly international logistics operation, whether based in New Zealand or internationally, you should be seriously considering buying this business. As they are already predominant in the category, the opportunity for you to enter it may not be otherwise available.

There is significant confidentiality surrounding this sale of this business and applicants will be vetted and approved by both Barker Business Brokers and the Vendor together with evidence of funds before correspondence will be entered into.

The Vendors are seeking expressions of interest and will negotiate a fair price.

International enquiries welcome:

This is a one-off opportunity which will be sort after internationally. If you like what you are reading and would like to obtain further information, visit the Barker Business website, search reference 3575 and submit the online Confidentiality Agreement. Once Mike receives your expression of interest, he will be in touch.
