Sales and service business - electrical background an advantage

Long established business with excellent reputation
Sellers Discretionary Earnings over $250,000 pa
Includes revenue from servicing and monitoring
Exclusive agent for leading equipment brand
A unique business opportunity

This business sells and installs security systems and surveillance equipment commonly found in homes, businesses and around commercial property. This long established and trusted Hawke's Bay brand is known for honesty, speed of response and quality workmanships.

Established over 20 years ago the business has a large customer base that produces ongoing service and monitoring revenue. Very little equipment is required and business can operate from a residential address. Lots of scope to grow this business. Would suit a couple relocating to Hawke's Bay or an electrical business looking to expand its services.
