

Wedding Venue, B&B & Function Centre Business for Sale Clarkville Canterbury

A unique business opportunity for those wanting to purchase a profitable luxury wedding, B&B, and events centre complete with award winning on-site residence amongst exceptional gardens and grounds

The well-established and complete destination venue has proven to be highly popular for memorable weddings, conferences and other events, as well as with overnight guests who seek a tranquil retreat in the countryside. The main residence won a Canterbury Master Builders Association Gold Award with a floor plan which has been cleverly designed to encompass luxury accommodation complete with a bridal suite, large living area and kitchenette; additional guest accommodation, and owners residence.

Business Resources

The American-style barn venue is a mix of rustic elegance and features a commercial kitchen, an outdoor courtyard, seating for 120 and an acoustically designed dance room. This multi-faceted property and business presents a unique and compelling opportunity. With forward bookings into 2025, this business and property is being sold as a going concern.

It's a privilege to present this property to the market and if you're looking for a profitable work from home lifestyle call exclusive agents Linda and Brian for further information.
