Boutique Wellington Café & Bakery for Sale Established in 2016, this much-loved Wellington café and bakery operates seven days a week with seating for around 30 inside and out. Serving roughly 28kg of coffee weekly, the business is known for its beautiful house-made cakes, sandwiches, and doughnuts, alongside a curated range of imported goods from France and Italy. With consistent growth since opening and an annual turnover now sitting around $880,000, the café continues to attract a loyal local following and strong online orders. It also offers a small but growing range of catering available through its website. A fantastic, experienced team is in place, supported by clear systems for production, service, and ordering. The business uses premium ingredients and well-maintained commercial equipment, including a fully fitted kitchen, coffee setup, and delivery vehicle. Rent is approximately $47,000 per annum (including GST) with a flexible lease ready for renewal for the new owner. This is an opportunity to take over a thriving, well-established boutique business with genuine heart — ready for continued growth under fresh energy and direction. Asking Price: $465,000 + GST (if any) Includes all equipment, vehicle, and brand IP. Confidential sale – genuine enquiries only.

A busy, well-established Wellington café and bakery operating seven days a week with seating for 30 inside and out. Serving about 28kg of coffee a week, we make all cakes, pastries and doughnuts in-house and also supply online orders. Alongside our own products, we sell a small curated range of imported goods from France and Italy. The business enjoys steady $880 k+ annual turnover and a loyal local following. A strong team and clear systems are already in place, making this a simple takeover for the next owner. There is clear opportunity to expand catering, online sales and retail.
