

Supermarket for Sale Hamilton

Entry-level franchised supermarket!

Waikato region-based

This is a great opportunity to acquire this entry-level franchised supermarket conveniently located in a fast-growing residential area. The business has great growth potential and is already known within the local community for providing a great selection and value. Located in the heart of a suburban commercial hub and with close proximity to a large residential population, this store has the best of both.

This store offers a range of fruits and vegetables and grocery products and has the potential for further growth.
