Quality kennels and cattery making good money

Alameda Kennels and Cattery is a full time seven day a week business with staff in place to allow the owner time a lot of time away. An attractive package making good sense if you would like a lifestyle or to work for yourself which would increase the return.

Included is the three bedroom residence, garaging, land, and the kennels & cattery buildings plus business. Located on the edge of Christchurch and easily accessible by many suburbs, Alameda is well supported by loyal clientele and has a growing database.

Offering a quality boarding or day-care experience for your beloved dogs and cats, Alameda has three full time staff plus part timers when required meaning as an owner there is the ability to have time off whilst the business carries on.
