This is an outstanding opportunity to get involved in the importing and wholesaling of hair & beauty products which also provides a cash and carry option to clients.

The business has been around for 40+ years and has built an excellent reputation for the range of quality products it sells and excellent service it delivers.

The business has huge opportunities to grow but needs an energetic switched-on hairdresser or sales/marketing person to drive and leverage sales online and direct to the clients. With 15% of NZ's hairdressers on the database a nice strategy might be to market and sell more to the existing clients and grow new client numbers.

Ideally suited to a someone with a background in sales and marketing, or from the Hairdressing industry looking for a positive change of direction.
