Extremely Profitable Chem-Dry Franchises (South Island)

Chem-Dry is New Zealand's leading upholstery, carpet cleaning and flood restoration company and a world leader. The first franchise came to NZ in 1986 and since then it has experienced substantial growth nationally.

Realising there is money to be made from doing the jobs others didn't want to do, was enough to convince the owner to purchase a franchise four years ago. Being good to your word, turning up when you say you will and exceeding client expectations was the philosophy. Ensuring his operatives received continual training so they could deal with anything that was put in front of them was key to building the fantastic reputation they have.

A business plan was crucial to managing the business however reputation meant they soon became so busy and the plan went out of the window. Second year saw massive increase in revenue of 348%, 139% the next and 119% on the current year at 10 months. With a quantifiable growth strategy in place, the sharp increases in revenue will only continue.

Covering exclusive territories in Nelson and Marlborough, the owner has identified a range of new services that will attract new customers from different industries. It is rare to find a business of this magnitude/scale in this area. A unique business with great systems and supported by the master franchisee.

Chem-Dry is well known for its range of services around carpet cleaning, it is also now at the forefront of providing an on demand service anytime using it's team of highly qualified operatives to respond to any emergency, anywhere in New Zealand.

Work is extremely varied with contracts in place with NZ's leading insurers as well as being a local service provider for emergency services, housing associations, schools and WCC.

Chem-Dry is part of Flooring Xtra with 61 retail stores across New Zealand, each carpet Flooring Xtra sells comes with a maintenance program delivered by Chem-Dry which will increase your earnings potential.
