Brilliant Suburban Café Loved by Locals with Short Trading Hours

This well presented café enjoys very low competition and a great high profile location in suburban Hamilton.

Currently operating with reduced hours to suit the owners lifestyle while still providing the owner over $70,000. In previous years with standard café operating hours the owners earnings were well in excess of six figures.

With a great team and a quality lease in place just bring your hospitality or people management experience to make this already successful cafe your own.
