Attractive Motel in Prime Location

If you're serious about a motel business and want something that will provide a good living and still have room to grow, then look no further. This 12-unit motel on a main road and close to shops and restaurants has just become available in Whangarei.

With an established loyal guest list of both leisure and corporate travellers, this motel business would be ideal for a first motel or as steppingstone to something bigger.

With units ranging from studios to one-bedroom units and larger family units plus a conference facility, this motel caters for a wide range of travellers.

Whangarei City is the commercial hub of Northland and as such attracts a wide variety of travellers looking for value accommodation.
