About Pukekohe

Located in the Franklin District of Auckland, Pukekohe is a thriving town known for its rich agricultural heritage, vibrant community, and strategic location within the wider Auckland region. Over the years, Pukekohe has experienced significant growth and development, attracting families, businesses, and investors alike.

About Hire A Hubby Pukekohe Territory:

With 25 years presence in Pukekohe, Hire A Hubby is known for its solid reputation for reliability, quality workmanship, and exceptional customer service.

You can tailor this business to suit your own skill set. Within our established Hubby network there are builders, kitchen renovation specialists and so much more, or if project managing is your thing, you can run and manage larger jobs utilising the subcontractors you need to get the job done to the highest standard!

Pukekohe offers ample opportunities for growth and expansion, encompassing not only Pukekohe but also surrounding areas such as Pokeno and Tuakau. With a diverse customer base spanning residential and commercial sectors, there is potential to grow the business as a single operator or with a team of staff completing multiple projects.

There is a loyal and diverse customer base that has been cultivated over decades of operation. From homeowners to businesses, your services will be in high demand throughout the territory.
