

Online Retail Business for Sale Waikato Relocatable

Online & Flexible with Less Work

This business will allow you to earn more while working less, giving you the desired freedom. It's the ideal opportunity for someone seeking flexibility during their work week, with the owner working just 15 hours per week.

You might have marketing & sales experience, and this is a proven online retail empire. Look no further than this exceptional business offering.

The exclusive ownership of brands and rights of the product range is just the beginning of your journey towards success.

Currently based in Waikato, this business could continue to operate from its current location, or you might like to relocate anywhere in New Zealand that has reliable access to courier services.

After many years of refining operations, this business has defined systems and processes that ensure efficiency and ease of management. If required, unskilled staff can effortlessly complete orders, allowing you to focus on growth strategies.

Benefit from long-established relationships with suppliers, including rights and designs. This gives your new business a competitive edge in the market.

The current owner, who is looking to retire, has called time. They are willing to provide a comprehensive handover if required, ensuring a seamless transition and ongoing success for the new owner.

This business is a market leader within this category and has set a high standard. This business would be of interest to Mums or Investors who are passionate about babies & children.
