

Fashion Recycling Business for Sale Auckland

Make Recycled Fashion Your Business

This is a profitable, long established Auckland retail fashion recycling icon. It's in a sought after, central location and operates largely under management. It has a stable, experienced staff team, most long serving.

No cash outlay for stock. You pay for it when you sell it. It's a highly efficient business model.

The owner is retiring after well over twenty years guiding the business. There are opportunities for significant growth, both organically and through development of online sales through the already established digital shopfront.

If you're into fashion, make your passion your business.
