Construction Business For Sale - High Growth Potential

A construction company, currently experiencing significant growth despite industry challenges, is seeking a new owner who can effectively manage and advance the business.

Company Highlights:

- Strong Performance: Despite industry challenges, this construction company has consistently grown
- Owner Commitment: The current owner is willing to stay and assist with the business transition in any capacity
- Established Clientele: This company serves several prominent clients who provide a steady stream of projects
- Diverse Contracts: This company engages in numerous significant contracts across various sectors, resulting in a wide range of diverse projects
- Up-scaling: With professional management at a larger scale, opportunities to grow this business are limitless

This is a great opportunity for seasoned industry professionals with experience in managing large-scale operations across multiple projects to acquire a highly successful company that requires upper-level expertise to reach its full potential.
