

Hauraki Eggs Business for Sale Waikato

Free Range Eggs and More

Hauraki Free Range Eggs

The Vendor of this business has taken over the lease of this operation and site. The Facilities have undergone extensive improvements and the operation put back into full production. This has involved replacing equipment along with replenishing of 7,500 laying hens.

The vendor has considerable experience in this industry and currently owns another similar operation. Therefore, as this is new operation the financial returns are the forecast earnings going forward.

The budgeted forecast costs include;

- * Value of the laying hens
- * Lease costs
- * Feed costs
- * Outgoings
- * Repairs and Maintenance
- * Replacement hens

As the hens have an egg laying life we have also budgeted an amount for replacements over time.

All these costs can be verified by the vendor.

In terms of income the important aspect is that the vendor is prepared to purchase all the eggs from the new owner on a weekly basis along with weekly payment terms.

The site is approved by the Ministry of Primary industries and the vendor will support you, as you organise your own Risk Management Plan.

Note: Resource consent for this property allows for an increase in the number of Free Range Laying Hens

In terms of the lease this operation has until 2044 with renewals within this period. The lease includes an farm style house in average condition on site, along with all the assets associated with the egg operation. The operation is based just over the Bombay Hills

A bonus for the new owner is the ability to run a few sheep and cattle on the site. It also has several
