Operate from any location - Isotec NZ Limited T/A Isovalve™

Turning over $1.1 million, the Isovalve™ business provides a very flexible working lifestyle with no staffing issues.

Serving the plumbing industry, the patented Isovalve™ markedly improves installation efficiency for the tradesman whilst providing ongoing benefits for the end user. This product is in demand throughout New Zealand by plumbers, engineers and specifiers.

Isovalve™ has an established customer base comprising of all plumbing merchants throughout the country. Growth of this business (if desired) is simply a matter of increasing the customer base and/or adding new products to the strong foundation that Isovalve™ currently provides.

The Isovalve™ business model operates as efficiently as its product - i.e. can be operated remotely from anywhere.

Manufacturing is reliable and off shore to maximize cost competitiveness. Distribution is by a 3PL (third party logistics) company together with a part time administrator. The owners currently do the marketing as and when deemed required. A solid part time earning exceeding $200,000.
