High-End Custom Manufacturer with Global Reach!

Looking to acquire a pioneering luxury manufacturing business with a strong national and international presence?

This highly respected business, established over 23 years ago, combines innovation with craftsmanship to deliver bespoke, high-end solutions to private and corporate clients. Operating from Canterbury, New Zealand, with relocation potential, this business has carved a niche as a trusted name among interior designers, architects, and discerning homeowners and corporates.

With its proprietary high-tech manufacturing technology, this business seamlessly blends the precision of automation with the artistry of custom design. Operating a US-based brand has further strengthened its global market position, opening doors to significant expansion opportunities.

Key Highlights:

- * Proprietary In-House Technology - Exclusive, Hi-Tech machinery delivers unmatched accuracy, speed, and design flexibility.
- * Established & Respected Brand - Over 23 years of industry leadership with a strong reputation for quality and innovation.
- * Global Market Reach - Serving high-end residential and commercial textile projects across New Zealand, Australia, and the USA.
- * Sustainability Focus - Ethical sourcing and premium materials, including appeal to eco-conscious consumers.
- * Customisation Advantage - Fully bespoke product designs are able to be created in conjunction with customers, setting it apart from mass-market competitors.
- * Relocation Potential - Flexible business model with support available for relocation and reassembly of all plant and equipment.

A perfect opportunity for a new owner with a passion for the design industry. No technical experience is required as the current owners are happy to provide training and support to help facilitate a smooth transition of ownership.

This is a rare chance to take the helm of a well-established, innovation-driven business with immense growth potential. Whether as a strategic acquisition or an investment into luxury manufacturing, this business is poised for further expansion. Don't miss out on securing this industry-leading enterprise!
