Looking for a highly profitable, well-established business in the fresh food supply industry?

This large-scale operation services both wholesale and direct-to-consumer channels.

With a blend of local and imported products, it supplies a wide customer base through strategic partnerships and its own robust logistics network.

Key Highlights:

- Long-term wholesale contracts with major retailers
- Direct-to-consumer e-commerce platform
- Diverse and growing revenue streams
- Expansion underway into additional product categories
- In-house logistics for efficient distribution
- Strategic location with purpose-built premises (available for purchase)
- Scalable operation with strong future growth potential

This is a turnkey opportunity in a growing sector — ideal for investors, industry players, or complementary businesses looking to expand.

With strong foundations, loyal customers, and clear avenues for growth, the business is well-positioned for continued success.
