

NORTHLAND NEW ZEALAND

TOOLS FOR Success

DOMINATE YOUR MARKET

Whangarei Business Opportunity. - seeing is believing.

A well established, 30 year old, iconic branded business not only servicing a range of existing businesses operating throughout Northland but also servicing a customer base in that area which comprises a combination of a wide range of trades people, or others choosing to be involved in the likes of the D.I.Y. sector. Whilst the Northland region, a large geographical area, contains a population which is itself in growth phase is expected to offer a new owner future business growth, there may be potential opportunities to grow this business in the short term by possibly offering greater on-line customer access for ordering and delivery.

In addition to the above growth potential related in the first instance to the sale and servicing of a high-quality range of new products provided to small businesses as well as trades people, the business has identified and has developed additional revenue streams in the business adding further value to a business which has no direct competition within Northland!

This is a small business with a small team of technically skilled staff who continue to maintaining, but is capable of growing, the business's industry reputation for delivering customer access to a high quality product range and being able to services its products not only on time but to do so to a high standard ensuring customer satisfaction from its repeat customer base.
