Growing Niche: International Homestay

A Resilient Business in a Growing Niche - Homestay for International Students

This trusted education support business is your chance to step into a profitable, purposeful venture!

Business Highlights:

- * 30+ Year Legacy
- * Revenue Trending Up
- * Home-Based, Low Overheads
- * Tailored Student Placement
- * 350+ Active Homestay Families

This business organises and manages homestay accommodation for international students studying in the South Island. With a deep and trusted network of host families, students are placed in warm, culturally welcoming homes for short- or long-term stays.

Its cornerstone client, a leading tertiary institution, has relied on this provider for nearly two decades to deliver high-quality experiences to its inbound international students. The business is the fee-setter in the sector and maintains high standards with documented procedures and efficient systems.

Run from home, this business offers flexible working hours, stable income, and a rewarding purpose. Minimal staff required. Easy to operate and scale.

Opportunities for Growth:

- * Expand partnerships with additional education providers and regions
- * Build a professional website and launch direct marketing campaigns
- * Add tourism and other short-stay options using existing host capacity
- * Offer training/consulting services or franchise the model

A great fit for someone with a background in education, administration, pastoral care or hosting - or simply someone who enjoys people and values cultural exchange.

Act now to secure this business ahead of the next peak student intake season.
