High-Margin Mobile CCTV Hire Business

Looking for a scalable, tech-driven business with solid returns and minimal overheads? This high-performing mobile CCTV hire operation is ready for new leadership to unlock its full growth potential. Established in 2020, this New Zealand-based business provides solar-powered, AI-enhanced CCTV systems tailored to the civil, construction, and rural sectors. With a lean, no-staff model and subcontractor-based support, it services Auckland, Northland, Bay of Plenty, and Waikato. The business boasts a well-maintained fleet of around 50 units, with high utilisation and recurring revenue from loyal B2B clients across multiple industries.

Key business highlights:

- * Innovative, patent-pending solar-powered trailer system
- * Flexible subcontractor model with no full-time staff or fixed premises
- * High-performing fleet with over 90% utilisation
- * Strong recurring revenue from leading civil and construction clients
- * Strategically positioned in Auckland with scalable service model
- * Live AI monitoring and threat detection built into weekly hire rate
- * Recognised finalist in a major innovation award
- * Significant growth potential via marketing, product tiers, and regional expansion

The current owner contributes just 5-10 hours per week in a passive, high-level management role. This creates an ideal entry point for a motivated buyer ready to scale operations and tap into new markets. Whether you're a hands-on entrepreneur or an investor seeking a turnkey opportunity, this business delivers flexibility, freedom, and a proven platform for growth.

Opportunities like this don't come often - a business with modern tech, stable margins, and real expansion potential. If you're looking for a future-focused venture with built-in resilience, this is one you don't want to miss.
