Profitable Trade & Install Business - BOP

A retiring owner presents a fantastic chance to take on this one-person, owner-operated business in the trade and construction space.

This hands-on business provides dependable income through installation and service work for both residential and commercial clients, with a constant stream of demand keeping the workflow steady and opportunities available for a new owner to take on even more work.

Why it's a standout opportunity:

- * Consistent workflow driven by strong demand for security and access solutions
- * Well-regarded in the trade/construction space, trusted by clients and suppliers
- * Turnkey operation - vehicle, tools, and stock all included
- * Ideally suited to a practical, hands-on owner looking to be their own boss
- * Straightforward to learn, with systems and supplier support already in place
- * Clear growth potential - expand into new regions or broaden services

Step into a proven business model with steady demand and enjoy the independence of running your own operation without the challenges of starting from scratch.
