

Free Range Eggs Business for Sale westport

Own a proven free range egg business with strong demand, reliable distribution, and expansion opportunities across the West Coast

Utopia Free Range is a well-established Westport-based egg business supplying cafes, restaurants, supermarkets, and loyal locals across the West Coast, from Karamea to Hokitika. The business enjoys strong regional brand recognition, consistent demand for quality free range eggs, and long-standing customer relationships. With efficient operations in place, it offers steady income and reliable supply channels. Opportunities exist through expanding distribution, increasing production, or developing new product lines to meet rising demand for ethical, local produce. Buyers gain a turnkey operation with repeat customers, established systems, and the chance to enjoy both business security and a rewarding lifestyle in one of New Zealand's most beautiful regions

Business Resources

Currently run by a husband-and-wife team, Utopia Free Range includes a processing shed, five coops, egg washing machine, commercial feeders, poultry drinkers, and 800 prime laying chickens. Feed and packaging supplies are included where available, along with a premium customer base and established systems. The business operates with an RMP in place, and owners can assist with setting up a new RMP, ensuring a smooth transition for the buyer.
