H&S professionals - are you looking to step out on your own?

If you have a background in H&S and enjoy teaching, training or coaching this could be the business opportunity for you!

Owner retiring - Profit $120,000 (10-20 hr/wk) : Asking $220,000

Based in Canterbury, this business generates a full time income to an owner working part-time! H&S training is in demand, with a shortage of skilled professionals to deliver quality education.

On offer:

- Quality IP - range of customised courses with support material
- Contracts with two large organisations to deliver H&S training to members
- Strong client relationships NZ-wide - good mix of small, medium and corporate clients
- Ample growth opportunities - current owner does no marketing at all
- Low overheads - home based
- Owner works ~10-20 hours a week
- Christchurch-based - ideally new owner will be in Canterbury but relocation within South Island is feasible.
- Owner retiring and committed to the successful transfer of the brand and client relationships.
