Established Eco Jet-Boat Tour Operator West Coast

Established Eco Jet-Boat Tour Operator - Waiatoto River Safaris

A rare opportunity to acquire an established, highly regarded ecotourism business operating in New Zealand's pristine West Coast wilderness. Waiatoto River Safaris offers guided jet-boat tours from the ocean to the Southern Alps within the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Westland Tai Poutini National Park.

Renowned for its sustainability, community connection, and premium nature experiences, the business holds Qualmark Silver certification and the Tiaki Promise. With an all-weather operation, flexible tour capacity, and strong digital presence, it appeals to travellers seeking authentic, responsible adventures.

Available as two packages – river operations or land and infrastructure – or combined as a turnkey eco-tourism enterprise.

Business Resources

The sale includes all operational assets—jet boats, trailers, river access facilities, and booking systems—plus established branding and digital platforms. The freehold base features a dwelling, check-in office, storage sheds, and maintenance areas. Experienced staff and guides may be available to support transition, ensuring business continuity.

Full training and handover assistance will be provided, covering operations, safety, marketing, and customer service systems for a seamless change of ownership.
