Plastic Products Manufacturer | Diverse Prod & Cust

This innovative Plastics manufacturer has been established for over 3 decades and has a comprehensive suite of services that include Extrusion, injection moulding, and coating. The business has a proven track record in innovation.

The business has a varied product portfolio that caters to a wide spectrum of industrial and consumer needs and users.

The business prides itself on offering flexible tailor-made services and products aimed specifically at New Zealand clients.

The business has been recognised with notable achievements that reflect a responsible operational ethos in its dedication to environmental stewardship. It has also been recognised for its commitment to material excellence.

These unique features position this innovative plastics manufacturer ripe for investment within a growth-conducive environment as there exists genuine potential growth beyond the business's current geographical and sectoral markets.

Ideally a new owner has experience and skills within the plastics manufacturing industry.

This is a genuine sale related to the vendor's health issues.

The sales revenue and shareholder discretionary earnings are forecast FY2026 results based on results for the six months to 30 September 2025.
