Confidential Restaurant Opportunity - Where Cuisine Meets the Coast - (CML 11434)

An extraordinary opportunity to acquire one of New Zealand's most acclaimed destination restaurants - an architecturally designed, purpose-built venue recognised for its innovation, sustainability, and remarkable setting.

Founded and led by an award-winning chef, this establishment has received extensive national and international media coverage and industry acclaim for its cuisine, ambience, and visionary design. The restaurant blends refined dining with an immersive natural backdrop, creating an experience that attracts discerning locals and destination diners alike.

Operating predominantly for evening service, there is significant scope to expand into daytime trade, private events, and functions - opportunities supported by a proven demand profile and minimal local competition.

This is a rare chance to secure a premier restaurant of distinction, ready to take its next chapter under new ownership.

Highlights:

- Award-winning, architecturally designed venue
- Nationally recognised with extensive media features
- Purpose-built, fully equipped kitchen and elegant interior fit-out
- Strong growth potential through expanded hours and events

There's a charm to this restaurant - the kind that comes from genuine hospitality and a natural sense of place. Its setting, service, and food work together in a complete balance that keeps guests returning. For the right operator, it's a chance to take on a thoughtfully built business with a strong reputation and plenty of room to grow.
