WEBSITE DESIGN & HOSTING
Home based, operate from anywhere in NZ

Website Design & Hosting. Home Based Profits of $74,000+

On offer is a premium website design, hosting and digital services business that has developed an enviable client list and reputation.

While currently based in Queenstown, the business is fully remote and relocatable, offering a new owner the opportunity to be based anywhere in New Zealand.

Technical digital skills are not required to operate the business. All technical aspects of the business are supported by trusted, long-term contractors and service providers, while the current owner focuses on business development.

The business would ideally be suited to someone looking for a side hustle with sales or marketing skills, seeking a turnkey operation with recurring income, growth potential, and remote flexibility. Alternatively, the business may be an attractive expansion opportunity for an existing digital services company.

Business Highlights

- Earn $74,000 a year working just 15 hours a week
- Flexible hours that work around you and your lifestyle
- All technical work outsourced
- Solid reoccurring revenue from Domain hosting
- Great bolt-on business
- Work from home anywhere in NZ
- Strong client base and reputation
- Solid growth potential
