Established & Profitable Industrial Supplier

Established Industrial Supply - Long-Standing, High-Demand, Profitable

This well-established Bay of Plenty business has been a trusted provider of specialist engineering supplies for nearly two decades. Operating under the same ownership since for 20 years, the business services a broad customer base across trade, industrial, commercial, and public sectors.

With an extensive range of quality tools, bearings, fasteners, consumables, safety products and related equipment, the business enjoys strong repeat custom and consistent annual performance. Its reputation, long trading history, and alignment with a respected national buying group have positioned it as a preferred supplier in the region.

The owners are now preparing for retirement, creating a rare opportunity for a new operator to step into a profitable, well-systemised business with strong growth prospects supported by improving economic conditions.

Key Features

- * Nearly 20 years of continuous operation under current ownership
- * Strong and diverse client base across engineering, marine, automotive, agricultural and DIY sectors
- * Wide product range including tools, bearings, fasteners, safety equipment, consumables and specialised industrial components
- * Stock component is circa $600,000 included in the asking price
- * Established supplier relationships and purchasing power through a national network
- * Consistent financial performance with room for expansion and margin growth
- * Recurring revenue streams through consumables and trade repeat business
- * Well-organised systems, processes and inventory management in place
- * Excellent regional presence with opportunities for further geographic or online growth
- * Vendor prepared to provide a thorough handover to ensure a smooth transition

This is an ideal opportunity for an owner-operator, trade-aligned buyer, seeking a stable, profitable business with immediate cashflow and long-standing market credibility. With the foundations firmly in place, a motivated purchaser can focus on growth and development rather than start-up risk.

Confidential financials, stock details and further operational information are available upon completion of a confidentiality agreement.
