Your Local and Yours to Own in 2026

This beautifully appointed kiwi pub is looking for an owner operator to take the reigns to build on the fabulous business developed by the current owner. While the sales already exceed an average of $29,000 per week over 6 days the venue can manage $15,000 to $20,000 turn over days due to the fabulous chattels and multiple spaces within the venue.

Local trusts have expressed an interest in helping develop a gaming room if the next owner is interested in extra revenue over and above the established bar and food sales.

This is a pub that will help establish you in the heart of an affluent and desirable Waikato town. The pub runs with a good team and systems in place so even with no hospitality experience you could bring your passion for people and a good yarn to the bar and really make it your own.
