

FHGC Hospitality for Sale Matauri Bay

Rare Freehold Land, Buildings and multi income businesses in the winterless north, located at iconic Māori Bay.

For the first time in twenty years, there's a strategic commercial freehold and long-standing hospitality business for sale in Māori Bay. Nestled at the gateway to this stunning coastal destination, this opportunity captures consistent traffic from holidaymakers, locals, boaties, campers, surfers, and travellers, ensuring year-round activity with exceptional peak-season trade.

This freehold going concern includes the land and buildings, a standalone flat, and a lock-up garage. The established hospitality operation features a licensed restaurant and bar, café, takeaways, dairy, and liquor sales, all situated on a high-profile corner site with strong summer turnover. You'll benefit from a loyal local customer base and multiple buildings on corner site at major crossroads.

Here is your chance to own a piece of one of New Zealand's most iconic coastal gems. The motivated owners are looking to sell due to retirement and health reasons, so don't miss out on this rare offering.

Enjoy a coastal lifestyle in the winterless North, surrounded by a friendly local community, and close to Whangaroa Harbour, Kauri Cliffs, and Kerikeri. It's all about stress-free living while benefiting from both coastal and country life.
