

Home Staging Business for Sale Invercargill

Stageplicity Home Staging - Southland | Established, Flexible & Ready to Grow

A rare opportunity to purchase a successful and well-established home-staging business operating throughout Invercargill and the wider Southland region. The business provides full and partial home-staging and styling services for real-estate agents, homeowners, and property developers.

Offering great flexibility and lifestyle balance, this business maintains strong demand and consistent income. It would perfectly suit someone with an interest in interior design, real estate, or small-business ownership.

The sale includes furniture, artwork, décor, and accessories, along with branding, marketing materials, client lists, social-media pages, and a professional portfolio showcasing previous work. A trailer and the option to transfer the storage-shed lease (if required) are also included.

With a strong local reputation, repeat clientele, and steady bookings, there is clear potential to expand further across Southland through additional marketing and partnerships.

This is an ideal opportunity for a motivated buyer to step into a ready-to-run business with solid foundations, efficient systems, and proven results — all without the effort of starting from scratch.

Reason for sale: Owners are stepping back due to other work and family commitments.
