Why This Opportunity Stands Out

This is a rare chance to buy into New Zealand's most recognised aftermarket mags and tyres brand, backed by a proven franchise model and a strong regional footprint. With an established Hastings operation and the added benefit of the Napier territory, the business offers immediate scale alongside clear expansion potential.

Buyers gain the security of a well-known national brand while unlocking future growth in a neighbouring, high-demand market - all supported by systems, buying power, and brand credibility that are difficult to replicate independently.

Call today if this business is made for you and take charge of your future.
