

Established After-School Art Programme - Profitable, Systemised, Lifestyle Business

Well-established after-school art programme operating within a local Auckland primary school, with consistent enrolments and reliable term-based income.

The business is fully systemised and turnkey. All curriculum, lesson plans, materials lists, and class structures are already developed and documented, allowing a new owner to step in and operate the programme without creating content or systems.

This is a low-overhead, owner-operator business, typically running 2-4 afternoons per week during school terms. Teaching or art experience is helpful but not essential, as the programme is designed to be followed and replicated.

A structured handover and transition period is already in place to ensure continuity.
