Established Bakery & Cafe Business - Central Otago

A well-established bakery and cafe business operating from a high-profile commercial location in Central Otago.

The business generates consistent daily revenue through a combination of retail sales and in-house production. Trading seven days per week, it is supported by an experienced team and well-established systems.

Investment Highlights:

- Established trading history with strong local following

- High-visibility premises with a secure lease in place

- Fully equipped commercial kitchen and production facility

- Stable team willing to remain

- Diversified revenue across bakery, cabinet food, and cafe sales

- Capacity to expand into wholesale or broader distribution

Significant investment has been made into commercial equipment and infrastructure, providing a turnkey opportunity for a new owner. The business enjoys consistent foot traffic and repeat trade, with scope to further develop wholesale channels or refine margins under active ownership.

The vendors are selling for personal reasons, presenting a genuine opportunity to acquire a stable, systemised operation with growth potential.

This opportunity will suit an experienced operator, hospitality professional, or buyer seeking an established food business in a high-demand regional market.
